

GROVER IS MISSING
BUT NO ONE AFRAID.PRESIDENT'S HUNTING PARTY NOT HEARD FROM.

That Much Discussed Tariff Caucus Was About As Secret As Such Things Usually Are—Report On Hawaii Submitted to the House—Victory For Hatch.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—President Cleveland's hunting expedition has not yet been heard from but not much anxiety is expressed. There is an undercurrent of uneasiness, however. Tariff is the theme of general discussion just now. Yesterday's much talked of caucus began shortly after 10 o'clock, adjourned at noon during the senate morning hour and reconvened afterward. The greatest care was exercised to prevent information of the proceedings becoming public, with the usual result. Shortly after going to caucus the democrats of the finance committee entered and laid the bill before their associates. The purpose was to discuss the measure in private and reach some harmonious understanding so as to be able to go into the presence of the public and work together for its passage. The chances of such an agreement being reached are decidedly doubtful. For instance, the difference of opinion on the sugar schedule threatens to cause some very marked disturbances. The Louisiana senator and a few others declare that they will bolt the bill if sugar is not protected. Senators from coal and iron and wool states insist that they will do the same thing unless their industries are taken care of. It will be impossible to please everybody, and it is therefore believed that no concessions will be made without the severest kind of a struggle. The most important proposed changes in the bill, as laid before the caucus, were a duty of 1 cent on raw sugar, 1½ cents on refined, the raising of the whisky tax to $1.20 with an extension of the bonded period to five years, the placing of lead ores and lead products on the free list and the placing of a 50 cents per ton duty on coal. There were several speeches made, the chief one being by Senator Turpie, who spoke against the sugar duty. He saw no reason why seventy million of people should be compelled to pay 1 cent more per pound for sugar for the sake of about thirty thousand people. "If the people of Louisiana can't raise sugar without protection," he said, "let them go into some other business."

REPORTS ON HAWAII.

Majority of the Senate Committee Indorses the President's Acts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Senator Morgan, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, yesterday presented the report of the investigation of that committee into the Hawaiian matter. The report is concurred in by Senators Sherman, Frye, Dolph and Davis, the republican members of the committee, who also make a supplemental report taking more positive grounds than the Morgan report, while Senators Butler, Turpie, Daniel and Gray, democrats, submit a minority report.

Senator Morgan, in his report, says the future policy of the government as to annexation has been excluded from the consideration of the committee, except where it is alluded to as an incident to the investigation. He lays down the proposition that "as a government dealing with Hawaii and with any form of government in that country, the United States can have no separation or break in its line of policy corresponding to any change in the incumbency of the office of President. It is in all respects as much the same government in every right and responsibility as if it had been under the same President during the entire period covered by the recent revolution in Hawaii and the succeeding events." The President, however, has a right to change his opinion, and a change of policy on the part of one President from that inaugurated by his predecessor must be regarded simply as a change of mind in the same person.

A declaration against monarchism in the islands follows, next, the report saying that "we exercise at least a moral suzerainty over that country."

The republican members agreeing to Mr. Blount's report submit a supplemental report indorsing the Morgan report in its essential findings, but declaring that the appointment of Mr. Blount as a special commissioner without the "advice and consent" of the senate was unconstitutional. They also hold that the placing of the naval force at Honolulu under the command of Mr. Blount and Mr. Willis, and the hauling down of the American flag at Honolulu by Mr. Blount's order, were without warrant of law.

The democratic minority of the committee, Messrs. Butler, Turpie, Daniel and Gray, especially dissent from the finding of the majority that the only substantial irregularity in the conduct of Minister Stevens was his declaration of a protectorate over Hawaii.

Sensors Butler and Turpie, in a supplemental note, declare themselves in favor of annexation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The proceedings in the house yesterday were full of exciting incidents. Mr. Bland being unable to secure a quorum concluded to allow the debate on the bill to proceed, at the same time declaring that he would return to the assault. Two sensational speeches followed, one by Mr. Pence of Colorado, and the other by Mr. Fithian of Illinois, who condemned in the severest terms the action of his democratic colleagues who were taking part in the filibuster. Toward the close of the session Mr. Pence's reflections on Messrs. Pickler and Ellis (Ore.) drew forth from them a statement which Mr. Pence characterized as "absolutely untrue." He was twice called to order, and the house, by a vote, refused to allow him to proceed. It is probable that Mr. Pence's speech will be the occasion of further comment to-day.

After preliminary business Bland moved to go into committee of the whole on his bill, and pending that to close the general debate at 4 o'clock to-day. On the latter motion he demanded the yeas and nays. The vote resulted 163 to 5, eleven short of a quorum. Mr. Bland upon the announcement moved a call of the house. The call developed the presence of 273 members. Mr. Bland then withdrew his motion to limit debate and moved to go into committee of the whole. The filibusters interposed no objection to this motion, as it left the debate running as before without limit, and it was carried, 119 to nothing.

Mr. Pence (pop., Colo.) then delivered probably the most sensational speech that has been heard in the house this session.

Mr. Patterson (dem., Tenn.) who followed Mr. Pence, said the fight in the house had produced a state of alarm. Business men were becoming afraid of silver certificates.

Representative Fithian (dem., Ill.) said the present proceedings were turning the house into a "beer garden."

Mr. Bland then made a vigorous appeal to the democrats opposing his bill to cease filibustering. He said a democratic caucus had decreed that it should be kept before the house until it was voted up or down, and it would be. The filibusters must take the responsibility for such delay as it caused.

Mr. Hepburn (rep., Iowa) called attention to the fact that throughout this struggle a constitutional quorum had been present and demanded that they should be counted.

Mr. Pickler of South Dakota made a statement in reference to Mr. Pence, which the latter characterized as "utterly untrue." He was at once called to order and made an exasperating explanation, adding defiantly, "If it doesn't satisfy the dignity of the house it satisfies me. I am ready now to proceed with what I was saying when the gentleman from Nebraska (who is fuller of whiskers than ideas) interrupted me."

He paused. There was a good deal of indignation at Pence's defiance, and on a motion to allow him to proceed Messrs. Tracey, Reilly, Goldzier, Everett, Warner and Lockwood voted against the motion, which was defeated—30 to 60. Mr. Pence sat down, and the house adjourned.

HATCH GAINS A VICTORY.

Anti-Option Bill Referred to the Agriculture Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—When the house entered upon the third week of the struggle over the Bland seigniorage bill yesterday there was a good attendance both on the floor and in the galleries. Immediately after the reading of the journal Mr. Hatch (dem.) of Missouri, chairman of the committee on agriculture, arose and stated that his committee claimed jurisdiction over a bill (the anti-option bill) which has been referred by the speaker to the ways and means committee, and he moved that it be referred to the agriculture committee. Messrs. Reed, Hopkins, Breckinridge and Bynum attempted to crowd in some remarks, but the chair decided that the question was not debatable, and on a rising vote Mr. Hatch's motion was carried—88 to 57. Mr. Warner (dem.) of New York made the point of no quorum, whereupon Mr. Hatch demanded the yeas and nays, resulting in the adoption of the motion. This insures an early report on the measure.

Senate Holds a Short Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The senate held but a short session yesterday in order to give the democrats an opportunity afterward to continue the caucus. Mr. Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, presented the report on the Hawaiian investigation, and Mr. Frye (rep., Me.) gave notice that to-morrow he would address the senate on that subject.

REPORT IN RACINE.

RACINE, Feb. 27.—Wisconsin Odd Fellows have possession of Racine for the rest of the week, this being their grand encampment. There is a large attendance and the visitors will be well treated. An elaborate banquet is on the programme for tonight. Grand Patriarch James Fathers, of Janesville, presented his annual report this afternoon showing the institution of new encampments at Prentice, Durand and Menominee, and the consolidation of Milwaukee Encampment No. 58 and Thunelda Encampment No. 11. Enterprise Encampment No. 64 was moved from Montello to Shawano and Yellow River Encampment No. 25 at Pittsville was suspended. Among the decisions by the grand patriarch during the year were that the officers of a subordinate lodge or encampment cannot as its officers, legally recommend a member for public position; that a brother elected to membership in an encampment in one jurisdiction cannot have the degrees conferred upon him in another jurisdiction and that a brother who takes a withdrawal card or is dropped from a subordinate lodge can still hold membership in an encampment for twelve months. The grand patriarch reported the order in his jurisdiction to be gaining steadily.

MANY OF THE RESCUERS HURT

Another Cave In At The Gaylord Mine—Work of Three Days Gone.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 27.—After three days' labor, during which they progressed about forty-five feet, the rescuing party in the Gaylord mine were very confident yesterday that in a short time some of the bodies would be reached, but almost without sufficient warning to enable them to escape another cave-in occurred, and the work of the last three days was blotted out in an instant. Many of the rescuers were cut and bruised by falling pieces of coal and rock and all were covered with dust. Daniel Edwards was on the ground shortly after the fall, and the men were encouraged by his presence. "Go on boys," he said. "We will reach the men if it takes a million and a year to do it." They expect to clear up the fall in three days. Mrs. Michael Walsh walked the two miles from her home at the Avondale to the Gaylord yesterday. She had heard that three of the men had been found and a hope sprung up that one was her husband. Mrs. Walsh was an object for sympathy and pity as she stood gazing down into the black opening of the fatal shaft.

MASSILLON, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Seven children were precipitated into the Ohio canal at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and three were drowned. They were: COPPER, CARRIE. KEICKS, JENNIE. BETSCHEIDER, KATIE.

The children had just been dismissed from St. Mary's Catholic school, and were taking a short cut home when the ice broke. One man heard their cries and rescued three. It was supposed a fourth, Fred Fisher, was also a victim, but it was found that he had got out of the water unnoticed and run home. The city authorities at once made an effort to recover the bodies, and at night thousands of people were about the canal, which was lighted by huge bonfires.

HAMMOND, Ind., Feb. 27.—Managers of the National forge and iron works at East Chicago yesterday announced a cut of 19 per cent in the wages of laborers, making $1 a day for the hardest kind of work, wheeling scrap iron. Two hundred and fifty Poles walked out and held a consultation on the main street of the town for several hours. There were several bloody fights. Some of the foreigners refused to go on a strike and knives were freely used. Many men were hurt, but none fatally, it is thought. Further trouble is looked upon as certain.

OLIN HIT COL. CLARK
IN THE SHORT RIBSMYSTERIOUS M'FAIL MEMOR-ANDA COMES TO LIGHT.

Governor Peck's Ex-Secretary Had Sworn Positively That He Never Made Such a Paper—Stirring Address to the Jury in Behalf of the Plaintiffs Took Up the Day.

MADISON, Feb. 27.—The entire forenoon was taken up in the roster case to-day with opening for the plaintiff by John M. Olin. He made a very complete statement of the details and complications of the case and declared that the plaintiff would show by undisputed evidence out of the mouths of the defendants themselves, that there was conspiracy to defraud the state, and that to get money to carry out that conspiracy, the defendants defrauded the plaintiffs.

Olin caused a sensation by producing a written memorandum given by Private Secretary Clark to McFail, which McFail testified in his deposition he had lost, which Clark had sworn positively he never gave, and which Olin said McFail had afterwards found. Olin continued his address till a late hour this afternoon.

When the case came up yesterday the plaintiffs asked to amend allegations by setting up that defendants conspired to defraud the state and the conspiracy to defraud plaintiffs was part of that conspiracy. The court denied the motion, holding that if it should appear by testimony that there was a conspiracy to defraud the state it would be only part of the evidence, and not part of the cause for action. This forenoon was spent in arguing the right of each of the six defendants to three peremptory challenges of jurors. The court held that defendants were not entitled to separate challenges and must be considered as one party.

Fortunately the big vessel was drifting or the fourteen men who were working on the intakes, keeping them clear from anchor ice, would have been swept to a watery grave. What injuries the vessel sustained Cribkeeper Charles Johnson could not say, as it backed away and lay too about one mile from the crib. No signals of distress were shown, however.

JUDGE WING CONTINUES.

His Speech Devoted Mainly to Mrs. Foy's Testimony.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—When court opened in the Coughlin trial yesterday the room was packed to the doors. Judge Wing's speech has proved to be the leading feature in the case thus far. He drew a larger crowd to the court than was present to hear the story of Mrs. Foy. Judge Wing took Mrs. Foy's story from all points of view. His examination of her evidence was like a series of contrasted pictures, one dissolving from view as the other came from behind it. He told the jury flatly that if they could believe Mrs. Foy's story entire it was all they wanted, and at once proceeded to show that it couldn't be true. He read from her testimony and again and again insisted that she could not possibly have told the truth. He called her testimony variously "a romance," "a yarn," "a fish story" and "a fish yarn." He scored Mr. Devoy, and the Cronin committee, and Irish journalists and patriotic interlopers.

SWINDLED THE FARMERS.

A Man With a Cure For Rheumatism Becomes Acquainted.

The manner in which the farmers in various parts of the country have been swindled of late is not at all encouraging. Some time ago a smooth looking individual, with a manner just as smooth, mysteriously "popped up" among the farmers with a medicine "that would cure rheumatism in no time, or pay would be out of the question," so the fakir said. Of course every farmer had the rheumatism, and as the pay was not to be forthwith until a cure was completed the majority of the unsuspicious farmers bought them. All that was required of them was to sign a note for twenty-five dollars, the price of the cure, the money to be paid to the agent when the medicine had been properly used and the cure perfected. Notes were readily signed and in many cases $5 and $10 accompanied them and the smooth individual went his way rejoicing. Days passed, and rheumatism prevailed as ever, for the patent medicine, composed mostly of water, failed to do its work. The farmers were angry to say the least, and "lowed as how they could never pay the darned agent a cent for his medicine," but their tune was changed somewhat when a finely dressed "gentleman" appeared on the scene and placed the notes before their eyes, with a request that payment be made or a suit would follow. The latter notice intimidated the best of them, and rather than go into the courts the money was handed over, and the collector did a land office business. This individual also disappeared as mysteriously as he came, with his pockets full of hard earned, (but not by him) cash. The well laid plan to defraud the tillers of the soil has capped the climax of the many other schemes, and hereafter drug stores instead of patent medicine men will be patronized.

NEW FACTORY WANTS TO COME.

Addition Must Be Planned to Secure This Flourishing Concern.

Another factory proposition comes this way. Mayor Thoroughgood has received a letter from the Heale Manufacturing Company in which the company agrees to plat a Janesville addition and locate a 200-hand factory, if Janesville people will agree to buy lots in the addition in question. The letter does not divulge the Heale company's present location but says:

"Our factory is established over twenty-five years in the east, doing a business all over the United States and Canada. Our present financial rating is $20 and $30,000 credit, A 1, employing 50 hands, although our property is worth double.

"We have recently incorporated with $150,000 subscribed capital to enlarging our plant. As we want more room we want to move to the west.

"We can furnish bonds, and security that we will do as we agree. Here is a chance to develop your city from 700 to 1000 people, and at the same time make over 100 per cent profit on your investment in lots, and increase the value of your town property and business in general.

"We are ready to let contracts for building at once and shall be pleased if you will call a meeting of your people to discuss the proposition and submit your offer and facilities for manufacturing."

C. H. Schellenburg, the company's representative, is waiting for an answer out in Sedan, Kansas. If he sees the color of Janesville money it will be after he furnishes a good deal more proof than that his middle initial does not stand for "Hamilton."

NATURAL HISTORY NOTES.

The Himalayas have been seen 224 miles away.

The largest crabs found in the East Indies measure two feet long.

There are in Florida 600,000 coconut trees, whose fruit is all sent to the New York market.

The tongue of the toad is attached to the front of its jaw and hangs backward instead of forward.

Cold food is even more difficult to digest than hot if taken too rapidly. The normal temperature of the stomach is about 98 degrees; food has to be raised to this temperature before digestion can take place.

It is said that the English way of serving pineapples is to take the fruit out from the rind in a solid cone. This, with its prickly stem attached, is left intact. The pine is then sliced and piled in its natural shape and the rind fitted on. It is thus sent to the table and served.

An old black walnut tree that was cut down in Flatbush, Long Island, a few days ago, is believed to have been killed by a current bush. The tree was found to have a hole four feet in diameter extending from the roots through its center to the first of its branches. At the first branch a red current bush had thrived for many years, and it is thought that the bush had found its nourishment in the heart of the tree, sapping its life away.

Richard Joy, who died May 18, 1742, at the age of 67 and is buried in the St. Peter's churchyard, Isle of Thanet, Kent, England, was known throughout Europe as the "Kentish Hercules," or the "Second Samson." When but a youth of 17 years he was invited to London by the king to give an exhibition of remarkable feats of strength. Among the feats of his more mature years was that of breaking, with his hands and feet, a rope with a tensile strength of 3,500 weight and the lifting of 2,200 pounds.

WOOL NEVER SO LOW FOR FIFTY YEARS.

D. Q. STARKS SELLS HIS CLIP FOR 10 1-2 CENTS.

He and His Father Have Raised and Sold It For Nearly Half a Century But the Smallest Figure Before Tariff Tinkering Was Twenty-two Cents.

TIFFANY, Feb. 27.—D. Q. Starks delivered his clip of wool last week. The price paid for it was 10½ cents per pound. This is the lowest price ever received for wool produced on that farm, and Mr. Stark and his father have sold wool every year for about forty-eight years. The next lowest price was 22 cents a pound. James Chamberlain has his saw mill in good running order, and is turning out all kinds of lumber. The teachers' convention at the village was a decided success. The afternoon exercises were held in the Congregational church. The teachers and visitors were given a warm dinner in the chapel, by the ladies. A case of diphtheria of a mild character, appeared at the station last week. The order of the state board of health regarding vaccination is being rigidly enforced in the schools. Letters from Sioux Falls state that Daniel O. Rayner, a settler here in '39, and long a resident in Janesville, is a sufferer from a paralytic stroke which occurred last week. The semi-weekly Gazette will be a new departure that will be warmly welcomed. The Woodman social at Fraternity hall was largely attended and proved a grand success socially and financially. Advice from the Shopiere colony in the Sandwich Islands at Honolulu, indicate all quiet there. Frank Parker, formerly manager of the Shopiere cheese factory, and Albert Warrick with their families, are in the milk business there. If the feelings of the residents of this section are any criterion, it is the general desire that the case against a citizen of Clinton for illegal conduct when Bitson was in the hands of the Clinton officers and their "guardians" be dropped. The fifteenth anniversary of the Congregational church at Shopiere comes in April, and will be observed with appropriate exercises.

SCARLET FEVER AT EVANSVILLE.

The Cases Are Now Conquered and No Spread Is Feared.

EVANSVILLE, February 27.—The two scarlet fever patients in town are out of danger and no new cases are reported. Three children of James Casey's in town of Porter have had diphtheria, but are now recovered. A few crops of tobacco have been bought here lately at free trade prices. Frank Van Patten has taken possession of the "Evensville House" and proposes to make it win. Mrs. Hattie France, of Chicago, is here on a visit. The Modern Woodmen gave an entertainment at their Friday night and a very large attendance and an enjoyable time is reported. W. F. Biglow will move his stock of furniture about March 1st into the Rossiter building, lately purchased by him.

South Clinton Man Surprised.

SOUTH CLINTON, Feb. 27.—The Sunday school in the Murray district planned and carried out a pleasant surprise for their superintendent, E. L. Benedict. Between fifty and sixty took possession of his home last week Tuesday evening, ate oysters, chicken and cake and made him a present of an easy chair. Mrs. J. G. Dresser and her cousin, Mrs. Fitzpatrick spent the day at W. E. Dresser's last week. There has been several cases of scarlet fever in this part of town. Mrs. C. J. Dresser has been on the sick list for two weeks while Edwin has been out of school for a week, owing to being vaccinated. Hattie Bellinger is home now and then. The neighborhood prayer meeting is at W. E. Dresser's Thursday evening.

News of South Turtle.

SOUTH TURTLE, February 27.—Rev. Dexter preached at the Murray school house Sabbath afternoon. Charles Gault and Annie Giles were called to Manchester, Ill., last Friday to sing at a funeral. On account of Lelia Adams sickness Mrs. Adams could not attend a surprise party for Gene Benedict. Colvin Johnson has been having chicken pox. Miner Hayward is sick. Mrs. Joseph Jack is still very low. Albert Hall is home from California. Mr. Pollock and family are moving west of Beloit this week. Word has been received that Atta Dresser is very low with pneumonia at her home in Denver, Col.

STREET CARS PAID THE PAST YEAR.

$1550.54 SUM OF THE NET EARNING FOR 1893.

Superintendent W. R. Proudfoot Made His Annual Report to the Stockholders Yesterday Afternoon—The Old Officers and Board of Directors Were Again Elected.

A very good showing is made by the Janesville Street Railway Company for 1893. The annual meeting of the stockholders was held at the Business Men's Association rooms yesterday. Superintendent Proudfoot's report showed that $1,550.54 was the sum of the net earnings. The report was as follows:

"The year 1893 will be a memorable one in the business portion of the country. It will also be a memorable one in the business of the Janesville Street Railway. Early in the year we were compelled to close the road for the period of six weeks, owing to the snow and particularly to a coal famine.

"After resuming operations on the 9th day of March, we conducted our business at a profit for the period of six months and until the business depression which was general throughout the country and the suspension of operations in so many of our manufacturing establishments, particularly those located at the ends of our lines, employees of which we carried to a large extent. There was also a large number of the people of Janesville who went to the World's Fair which consequently affected our earnings very materially. In conjunction with this general stagnation of affairs and a factor that operated against us and will continue to operate against us as long as this condition exists, is the fact of our inadequate plant for operating the line.

Good Service Absolutely Needed.

"It is absolutely necessary for the successful operation of a street car line that the service be constant and regular. This can never be depended upon while we have but one boiler, one engine and one generator, and I might also add with only one car for four different routes of travel. I am sure there are a few of the stockholders present who can fully appreciate this fact, and without detaining you further I will proceed to give you the earnings and receipts from various sources of the Janesville Street Railway for the past year.

The following is a condensed report of the finances:

Receipts from the road	$12,601.41
Paid on accounts	10,368.80
Unpaid accounts	382.08
Total expense	11,050.88
Net earnings for the year	1,550.54

The old board of directors was re-elected as follows: George W. Blabon, Philadelphia; A. A. Jackson, L. B. Carle, Alexander Graham and W. R. Proudfoot, they being the only nominations made. A total of 508 votes was cast for each man.

W. T. Vankirk presided as chairman and was given a complimentary vote as director. Secretary Proudfoot kept the records.

AN OLD "WILLIAM."

Worth $50 and Was Issued by Congress in 1778.

A few days ago Dr. E. M. Fuller of Fernwood, Illinois, read in the papers of the discovery in Lewiston, Me., of an interesting relic—namely, a "continental currency" bill, dated Philadelphia, Sept. 26, 1778, calling for "fifty Spanish milled dollars" and numbered 5358. Oddly enough, Dr. Fuller had in his possession the bill of the same issue numbered 5357—just one number ahead of the Lewiston relic. The inclosed engraving is a fac-simile of the bill in possession of Dr. Fuller. It is printed by permission of the secretary of the treasury.

A Chemical Smoke Destroyer.

That "almost anything is possible with science" is proved by the fact that while experimenters the world over have been trying to get rid of the smoke nuisance by appliances attached to the smokestack or the boiler furnace a German scientist comes forward with a chemical that actually prevents smoke at the time of fuel combustion. It only costs about 12½ cents per ton to use this chemical now when its production is limited. It is believed that it can be profitably produced in quantities so that it will only cost 2 cents per ton for coal so treated. Tests of coal which has been given a bath of this solution prove that its heating qualities are in no way curtailed and that the fire is clean, bright and well maintained.

An Underground Canal.

The cities of Worsley and St. Helens, in north England, are sixteen miles apart, yet they are connected by the most wonderful canal in the world. A tunnel has been cut through the great vein of coal which underlies the whole of Lancashire, and this, filled with water from the drainage trenches of that great system of mines, makes a remarkable underground canal, in which the water is constantly five feet deep. This canal is provided with a regular system of coal boats, which are constantly moving thousands of tons of the bituminous fuel between the two cities.

AN ABANDONED CITY.

It Has Handsome Residences, but Not a Single Inhabitant.

A party of archaeologists tell a thrilling story of the abandoned city of West Lynne in North Dakota. The city is desolate and going to decay; no traffic goes on in its streets or business in its stores; no homes are in the dwellings. The streets are graded, have sidewalks, and trees and shrubbery flourish in the yards surrounding the residences, but all is silence and loneliness. The town is opposite Emerson, just across the Manitoba line from St. Vincent. There, on two sides of the Red river and within an area of four square miles, are four towns—Emerson, West Lynne, Winston and Pembina. West Lynne is on the west bank of the river. The history of the place is one of the romances of town building in the boom period when Winnipeg was the metropolis of the north. Some schemers with more fertility than scruples, platted and exploited a city on the river at a point where they claimed the Great North ern was to cross. Eastern capitalists were becoming interested and money was plenty. There was no sham about the actual construction of that town, but a substantial reality.

A man named Murray of Chicago was the agent. He sold lots at auction for $5,000 each. While he would be selling a telegram would come notifying him of the sale of a certain plat, and it would be withdrawn.

Then he sold adjoining lots at advanced prices. That was the broker feature. Meantime building was progressing.

No board shanties, wood walls nor canvas shells, but handsome structures of brick or lumber, thoroughly finished in approved style, were erected, and to-day the town is a handsome but useless monument to the credulity of some and the hardness of others.

It has buildings which cost from $5,000 to $10,000 and a bridge which cost $200,000, and is capable of holding a population of 20,000, and yet not a human being lives in it.

Very Queer

re the sensations experienced by the nervous and dyspeptic. Unaccountable palpitation, buzzing in the ears, ringing of one side of the face, odd tastes and tingling in the mouth, constipation, sluggishness in the bowels, a sinking in the stomach, acute sensitiveness to slight sores, that magnifies them tenfold, low spirits—these are only a few of the charming experiences of the individual who suffers from combined nervousness and indigestion—a condition usually travel together. Their pay and festive career is, however, brought to a full stop by that great rest of the archer, Hostetter's—tomato Bitters, which also overcomes their all-consuming constipation and biliousness. This popular remedy fortifies those who use it against malaria, chronic rheumatism and kidney complaint, restores nervous quietude and promotes appetite, vigor and sleep.

Between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 eggs are consumed daily in New York city. A produce dealer, who handles more eggs than any other concern in the country, says that if the whole surface of the state of New York were covered with hens they could not lay eggs enough to supply New York city.

"Not one tenth of the number of women who come to consult me about memorial windows," said a celebrated artist in glass, "ever finally conclude to give the order. When through one cause or another the work is delayed, a commission is very apt to be countermanded; and if a year passes by without decision, I give up the idea altogether, for, except in very exceptional cases, acute grief is more or less healed in a twelvemonth."

A Whimsical Chap.

Once tried to quote Bulwer (was it Bulwer?) and said, "Great aches from little toe corns grow," and altho' he didn't exactly quote he got there, got there as it were, with both feet, at least with a part of both.

"To be or not to be," said Shakespeare, (or Bacon?) and he toe, may not be far off. Foot it over hill and dale, 'till you are weary and footsore, and you cannot find such bargains as we offer in building sites, Homesites, for on these and the prices of the same and terms, too, we always did "see the mark." For some reason we are this spring getting onto the goods, the prices and the terms with both feet. And so, with Hamlet we soliloquize: "The wonder grows", why people are not "up in arms" when the prices we quote are looked into. You can get a home, if you wish, so long as we are in the business; hard times don't count. If you are not earning so much money as you did last year, we will meet you; it don't matter.

Homesites and Homes are our fad; to help people get 'em is what we are on earth for, this time.

The main secret, we suppose, why we always get the major part of the real estate trade going, is that we own a large part of the property that we offer. Another part of the secret is, we deal every time so that our customer sends to us his or her friend when they want to deal.

Our beginnings here were not large, but so true it is that "Great oaks from little acorns grow," that the "birds of the air" have their homes,—build their nests,—in the result of our grain of mustard seed. Come over and roost with us. Yours very truly,

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

ELIAS HICKS.

A TRICK OF COWARDS.

It is no defense for democrats in congress to say that the recent deadlock was designed to prevent the passage of a mischievous measure. The Bland bill, providing for the coinage of the seigniorage is a bad one, unquestionably; but the right way to beat bad bills is to vote them down in a direct and decisive way. It is the duty of the majority to see that this method of dealing with schemes of legislation is observed in all cases. There is no other honest and proper plan of action. The expedient of breaking a quorum by refusing to vote is the most obnoxious one that has yet been invented, and those who resort to it, even in a good cause, are to be condemned. Of course the fact is well understood that the democrats are divided on the silver question as they are on most important issues, but that does not absolve them from their general responsibility to the country for the proceedings of the house. They have a majority so large that they can do what they please in every respect. It is not necessary for them to seek help from the republicans in shaping the course of legislation. They have a quorum of their own, and can do business without considering the minority at all, if they are so disposed. Under such circumstances, they have no excuse for permitting a deadlock to ensue, and the work of the house to be indefinitely suspended.

A HIGH STANDARD.

The Milwaukee democracy is relying solely upon the organ falsehoods charging republican sympathy with the A. P. A. to bring the unemployed Catholic voters up to the polls in favor of the democratic ticket this spring. As Boes Wall remarked some time before he went to Washington to lobby for protection to Milwaukee brewers and engaged in trying to assess federal officials for his local campaign fund, the Wisconsin democracy is on a high plane.—Madison Journal.

The chilly reserve with which the leading democratic reform organ in the state has reference to Secretary Cunningham leads Paragrapher Murphy to infer that the genial Thomas has done something to cause himself to be suspected of honesty.

All talk about republican candidates for the presidency is premature and profitless. The thing of real importance is the work of preparing the way for a great victory, regardless of any man's personal ambition.

As the St. Louis Globe Democrat sizes it up the income tax is designed to please the masses by causing them to pay more house rent to the capitalists who derive a profit from that source.

It is just as everybody feared! Cleveland's lavish use of patronage in the Peckham case has left him very little to use in coaxing the senators who oppose the Wilson bill.

Minister Willis is still drawing a salary as minister to Hawaii although his only function is to be looked upon with contempt by the government to which he is accredited.

The bigger the democratic majority in the house the less work congress is able to do.

EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.

AND UNIVERSALLY BELOVED BY ALL.

The Truest Friends Are Those Who Never Forsake Us—This May Lead You to Find One You Need and Have Never Known.

We all value a true friend, and there comes a time to all when assistance of some kind is necessary. When our health fails and we are overtaken by sickness and disease, then is the time when the needed friend comes forward to aid us.

Mrs. Alice Dyson, of 28 Hamlet St., Fall River, Mass., knows the value of such a friend, for one came to her when she was sick and almost dying and made her a strong, well woman. She writes the following letter about it:

"I suffered for five years with nervous prostration in its severest form. I had loss of memory, weak heart, causing extreme palpitation, was constantly tired and obliged to lie down much of the time. For two years I had to be helped up and down stairs. I had loss of appetite and was terribly distressed by what little food I could eat.

"I was troubled with sleeplessness not being able to get but about two hours rest at night. I felt too tired to breathe, was white as a sheet and was given up twice for dying.

MRS. ALICE DYSON.

"I got down to 120 pounds in weight when I should have weighed 180 pounds. I was unconscious at one time for five days. I finally commenced the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and immediately began to improve.

"My nerves were soon entirely strengthened, my memory returned and my heart did not bother me at all. My food did not distress me, I could eat and sleep well, the color returned to my face, I could go up and down stairs alone, my weight returned and I felt perfectly well and strong. I was entirely cured by Dr. Greene's wonderful medicine. I cordially recommend it to all.

Mrs. Dyson feels that this medicine is the best friend she has in the world, for it saved her from a life of suffering and misery and she knows it will do just as much for everyone who is in need of medicine. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the best friend the sick and suffering have ever known, for it cures them, it gives them health and strength.

The spring is always the best time to take medicine, for then the system yields more readily to the remedy, and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the best of all spring medicines. It is purely vegetable and harmless, being the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

Blindness.

If there is any affliction more grievous than another it is loss or impairment of sight. The man or woman who is compelled to go through life in darkness is always an object of pity.

That many diseases of the Eye that lead to total loss of sight are curable, if taken in time, and scientifically treated is readily admitted. Janesville is fortunate in having added to her staff of physicians an whose skill is recognized and whose practice has already developed to a degree that seems wonderful. Dr. H. A. McChesney possesses skill in treating diseases of the Eye that is indeed remarkable and many people are enthusiastic in his praise.

Glasses.

The aid to failing Eye sight are always a blessing, when properly fitted but any one who is compelled to wear them will admit that the Eye should be skillfully examined by a scientific man who understands not only the mechanical methods but also the delicate construction of this most delicate organ.

Dr. McChesney claims that in a large majority of cases the eye needs treating more than it needs artificial aid, and that when properly treated, that the natural vision can be restored without the aid of glasses. After a thorough and scientific examination and treatment, the doctor furnishes glasses when needed, without additional charge.

Deafness

next to the loss or impairment of sight, the loss of hearing is always considered the most grievous. Dr. McChesney's skill in treating deaf people is second to that of no specialist in the country. One of his patients, Mrs. F. L. Smith, is a lady who lives near the Lutheran church in the Fourth ward. Two months ago when she commenced treatment with Dr. McChesney, she was unable to hear the chime bells, and she had been so deaf for 15 years, that she could hardly hear a sound. Today you can converse with her comfortably and the chances are that at the end of her treatment she will be fully restored.

The doctor has many other cases that are steadily improving.

Catarrh

That disease that is so common in this climate, and that leads to such a variety of diseases such as consumption, bronchitis, asthma and a long line of minor complaints, yields readily to Dr. McChesney's skillful treatment. His blood remedies for catarrh in connection with his local treatment invariably brings relief and the worst cases are permanently cured. This of course requires time, and especially where the disease is deep seated and chronic, as is often the case, but if the patient will take the time and carefully follow the treatments a cure is almost absolute.

If you are suffering from any of the diseases which Dr. McChesney makes a Specialty you should lose no time in consulting him

A BROKEN SLEEPER BROKE THEIR SLEEP

UNIQUE PARADE AT THE C. & N. W. YARDS.

People Hustle Out of Their Berths and Are Quartered in the Diner Because a Careless Man Had Dashed a Pail of Water on a Hot Box—Wreck at Barrington.

"Put on your pants, good people: the cah's done gone broke down!" "Why, the very idea! Whe-e—Help! Fire! police!" called a piccolo voice.

"What's the matter?" asked a basso traveling man.

"Youse has got to be transfahed; a poah white trash cah repairer has done busted the oil well by throwin' cold watah on it sah and dis heah sleepah, the Blenheim, sah, are disabled. We's gwine foh to make you comfortable, sah in the dining car, sah."

Such were the sounds that early risers heard when the limited train came to a stop in the Chicago & Northwestern freight yards this morning. There was an odor of burning grease, and men with lanterns were quoting scripture in very decided tones.

"Hot box" said the conductor.

A man behind him dashed a pail of cold water over it.

"Rip! crack!"

It was then that the porter made his speech.

Old Maid Was Troublesome.

The train had been bothered with the hot box on the forward truck of the sleeper and when they got here it was too warm to continue so they stopped for repair. The cold water that was thrown on the heated journal caused the "oil well" to break and then the car was disabled. The porter waked the passengers up and then there was a procession. Men with coats and vests on their arms and collars in their hands emerged from the car and were followed by women wrapped in cloaks. They were all transferred to the dining car and the brakeman had called out "all right" in answer to the conductor's "all aboard" when another shrill shriek came from the sleeper.

"Who's in the cah," inquired the porter.

"I am," answered the feminine voice. "I'll be out as soon as I get my bangs curled."

"Her shoes am 4's, her collah am 11 an' her age am 44. Dat am enough to queer any train. She's mighty poah white trash anyway" mused the porter as he helped her on and the train sped on its journey. This accident delayed the train thirty-five minutes and the sleeper had to be left behind.

Two Chicago & Northwestern freight trains ran together at Barrington, Illinois this morning and a caboose and a car or two were demolished. Conductor Wire's train ran into Conductor Kipp's caboose but the damage was light.

Scalpings To Be Beaten.

Railroad men are discussing a change which the Milwaukee & St. Paul will make in the plan of ticket collection. It goes into effect Thursday, and it is believed will assist in doing away with ticket scalping. The road has issued instructions to all conductors and collectors that on and after the date named all tickets presented by passengers on trains leaving Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Sioux City for the east, Omaha, Council Bluffs and Kansas City, reading to points beyond the run of first conductor, must be taken up on first presentation, and continuous passage train check issued in their stead. The train check must show date of issue, number of train and designation of the original ticket or coupon, by what road it was issued, its form and class, and all other particulars necessary to identify it.

AGED MASON BURIED BY HIS FELLOWS.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT DR. MARTIN'S FUNERAL.

Church Thronged With Members of the Fraternity to Which the Dead Man Had So Longed Owned Allegiance—The Daily Record of Deaths and Interments.

Eight score of masons marched ahead of the hearse that bore Dr. C. L. Martin's clay to Oak Hill. Exalted members of the craft from other cities were in the ranks.

Christ church was filled with the throng who listened to the funeral services. Rev. A. H. Barrington officiated, the song service being by Mrs. A. H. Barrington, Mrs. William Ruger, John V. Norcross and William Bladon. Miss Julie Wilson was at the organ, a dirge sounding throughout the service.

The Masonic order was present in a body, the Sir Knights wearing their regalia, and the Master Masons their white aprons. After the services in the church were concluded the Masonic order took charge of the remains and escorted them to Oak Hill. Services at the grave were conducted by the Masons, Master T. C. Cook in charge. The pall bearers were S. B. Kenyon, M. L. Richardson, W. V. Love, Philo Thomas, G. C. McLean, Dr. Robinson—honorary bearers the church vestrymen, John J. R. Pease, William Ruger, George K. Colling, B. Eldredge, George M. McKey and George Smith.

Among the Masons in attendance from abroad were Grand Lecturer M. L. Young, Grand Scribe J. W. Ladlin, Grand Tiler Leonard Barrett, of Milwaukee, Dr. J. M. Evans Sr., Dr. J. M. Evans Jr., F. Baker, T. Sherman, Evansville, A. S. Jackson, E. A. Howell, S. W. Merwin and Charles Menzies, Beloit.

The death of Dr. Martin removes from Janesville one of the city's most well-known characters. Dr. Martin was born at the beginning of the century, before the mourning emblems called out by Washington's death had faded away. He was quite a lad when European armies contended on Waterloo's bloody field, and was a young man when the great Napoleon died at St. Helena. In fact the great events of the century were from beginning to almost the end the daily events which he witnessed. With the exception of Washington, all the American presidents have been inaugurated during his life, and all except Harrison and Cleveland have passed away before him.

CERTAIN RELIEF TO PATIENTS.

Dr. H. A. McChesney Spoken Of in the Highest of Terms.

Dr. H. A. McChesney, the specialist, who has created so much stir in this city and contiguous territory by his excellent work, is brier to-day than ever before. The doctor's fame has spread rapidly, and patients come from every section of the large territory in which The Gazette circulates, to go home happier people. The doctor does not make claims for relief from catarrhal and other affections without giving abundance of testimony. If any one is not satisfied of his ability to do as he agrees he should visit a number of the patients of the doctor and be satisfied. Dr. McChesney has had a very ripe experience with all forms and phases of catarrh. If you are suffering from catarrh don't hesitate to go and see him. He'll be glad to see you, and you'll be just as welcome if you come afoot as if you drive up to his door with a carriage and pair.

Doctor McChesney's offices are located in the Wilcox block opposite the Hotel Myers. He is permanently located in Janesville, and if you are suffering from any disease of the eye, ear, nose, throat or lungs, he will be pleased to see you during his office hours, which are from 9 to 11 a. m., 1 to 5 p. m., and 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. Sunday 9 to 11 a. m.

PUPILS STAND IN LACK OF SEATS.

Need of a New High School Set Forth by Prof. Mayne.

Superintendent Mayne's address to the council last night was a telling one. Its logic was the logic of figures. There were but one hundred and seventy-four desks in the high school to accommodate two hundred and twenty-three pupils, he said. In order to accommodate the large number of pupils two rooms had been prepared in the Lincoln building for the botany classes and this required the teachers to travel considerably. Other pupils were asked to study at home and only come to the building for recitation; recitation rooms were overcrowded to the extent that classes had to be divided, and then there was not sufficient seating capacity and no room for extra seats so the pupils and teachers were compelled to stand.

His argument prevailed and Alderman Child's motion that the school question be submitted to a vote was carried as the council report in another column shows.

PROF. VOLTAIRE HEARD FROM.

Now At Dubuque Advertising as the Moses Of the Present Day.

All of our citizens will remember Professor Voltaire and the trials and tribulations he underwent while in this city. After leaving here his troubles followed him. He was arrested, convicted and bound over to the circuit court on the charge of obtaining money on false pretenses from two Racine ladies. Every effort was made to secure his release, and at last he was successful, being released on habeas corpus proceedings and immediately left the city. The money he secured from Mrs. James McLaren and Mrs. Johnson was returned to them. Now the gentleman turns up at Dubuque, and the papers of that city tell of the wonderful powers possessed by him and the miracles he can accomplish. The "Moses of to-day" is his Iowa title.

Now comes word that Mr. Smart has accepted the republican nomination for congress in the Ottawa district and will be elected, Jerry Simpson to the contrary notwithstanding.

"Fantasma" at the Myers.

Fun and frolic, mirth and mystery, weird scenes and incantations, marvelous mechanism, handsome transformation and unique specialties are to be found in the Hanlon Brothers' greatest fairy spectacle, "Fantasma," to be given at the Myers tomorrow and Thursday nights.

Of all the spectacular pieces of its kind, "Fantasma" is by far the best. The series of pictures presented are elaborate and beautiful, and the blending of colors is so harmonious and so tasteful that the eye is constantly gratified.

HORSES AT AUCTION DRAW A BIG CROWD

COMBINATION SALE BROUGHT OUT MANY BIDS.

Speed From the McKinney and Bryant Farm, as Well as Clydes, Percherons, Shires, Coaches and Matched Teams Were Put Under Auctioneer L. H. Bear's Hammer.

Janesville's first "horse auction" came off today at Hadden, Scott & Company's barn. Bluff street was filled with spectators and the bidding was more spirited than would naturally be expected. L. H. Bear of Ravenna, Ohio, acted as auctioneer, and he did his work well. Eighty-six animals were put on the block, twenty-five of them being from the H. D. McKinney stock farm; twelve "Black Hawks" from General George E. Bryant's Madison farm; eight French coach stallions, one hackney and one Odenburg coacher, twenty Percheron stallions and mares, ten Clydesdales imported by Galbraith Brothers and four shires besides one or two teams and single horses. The attendance at the sale this afternoon was large, but this morning there were so few bidders that the sale was postponed until this afternoon.

FLASHES OF FOLLY.

"You say he is a bad egg. How did you find it out?" "He showed it the moment he was broke."

Hicks—Is Sappy such a fool as he looks? Wicks—On the contrary, he knows more than either of us. He knows he is a man of eminent intelligence.

"Where's the best place for quail in these parts?" asked the stranger who was on a hunting tour. And the man whom he had been regarding as a simple, guileless rustic responded briefly: "Toast."

A Frenchman left his horse at a livery and bait stable in London recently with the following written instructions: "I don't speak the English too much. Put my horse on the barn and rub him in. If he's dry, drink him and eat a quart of oats."

Wife—Don't eat much breakfast, dear. I'm afraid of the cook. I don't think she's quite right. Husband—Great Caesar! Not crazy? "Yes; she's been here two weeks and she is as respectful and willing to do anything I say as she was the first day."

A few days ago a man was pulled for beating unmercifully a poor old parody of a horse. When before the magistrate he struck out like this: "I've been in this country forty-five years, and this is the first time I ever met a magistrate." "Well, the introduction will cost you just $10," added his honor.

GENTLEMEN:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh, when nothing could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. Good sisters speak most encouragingly of their use of it in Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.
M. F. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Store Chicago, writes:
GENTLEMEN:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures, I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrhal Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear distinctly. It has held inishes from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure and have recommended it to a number of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it failed to relieve.

Miss Bright—Let's play "portrait gallery."
